MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

ATTENTION : [REDACTED]

STATINTL

SUBJECT : Proposed Regulation for Clearing Foreign Nationals Living With Departmental Employees

1. The following is an excerpt from the Deputies' Meeting Minutes for 10 December 1956:

"Colonel White reported that the Security Office had received a number of calls from our people requesting permission to sponsor Hungarian refugees and said pending anything to the contrary, Security had been advising that sponsorship should be handled as in the case of other aliens. Colonel White also commented that apparently some of our employees are under the impression that a number of these refugees are domestics, which is not the fact. The Director asked if there is any CIA regulation which requires that foreign nationals (domestics or otherwise) actually living under the same roof with our people be investigated. Upon being advised that there is not, directed that such a regulation be published."

2. It is requested that a proposed Regulation on this subject be drafted and forwarded to the Deputy Director (Support) by 24 January 1957.
